

The Waynesburg Republican, Wednesday, February 5, 1868.

Miscellaneous.

WOULD YOU KNOW

WHERE TO BUY

CHEAP GROCERIES?

JOHN H. PENN,

IN THE WEST END OF BRADEN'S BUILDING,

Has opened and will keep constantly on hand

the choicest qualities of

TOYS,

CIGARS,

NOTIONS,

TOBACCO,

CONFETTIERY,

FAMILY GROCERIES,

etc., etc. His late stock purchased for the HOLIDAYS!

challenges aputation as well as competition!

FLOUR KEEF AND SODA AT RULING FEATES!

Receipts are indumenta to buyers. Be sure to drop in on your "grand round" for family necessities. Remodel the place.

MAIN STREET, WAYNESBURG, PA.

EDO. H. PENN.

THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL FOR

1868.

DAILY AND WEEKLY,

A PAPER FOR THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY

AND HOME-HOLD.

PRESIDENTIAL YEAR—NOW

IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE?

It is important for us to receive full space in front of the change of the year.

It is the leading newspaper in Pennsylvania—through the most recently established—until now—affiliated with the newspaper—until now—affiliated with the